

2019 Queanbeyan-Palerang Regional NAIDOC Award Nominations

(Nominations close 5 July 2019)

Many local Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people contribute to Australian society through music, art, culture, community, education, environment, sport, employment and politics. If you think that someone in our community deserves to be recognised for their contribution, then complete the nomination form and tell us why you are nominating them for a 2019 NAIDOC Award.

Guidelines for Eligibility

All people nominated for a 2019 NAIDOC Award must:

- Identify as an Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander person, with the exception of the Non-Aboriginal Organisation Award;
- Be an active community member in the QPRC region.

Nomination Category Guidelines:

- Elder of the Year (male or female) must be aged over 60 years to qualify.
- Apprentice or Trainee of The Year must have held current position for a minimum of 3 months.
- Sportsperson of the Year must be signed to a specific code of sport within the region or state.
- Youth of the Year (male or female) must be aged between 16-25 years old.
- Person of the Year (male or female) must be an active community member.
- Inspirational Woman is open to women who have made a significant contribution to the community.
- Non-Aboriginal Organisation must be an active member within the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Community.

Nominations received will be shortlisted and two from each category will be selected by a committee comprised of NAIDOC committee members and community Elders.

Nominations close: 5 July 2019
