Queanbeyan and Bungendore

The QPRC Arts Trail returns for its 13th year in October. This is a chance to meet the artists and explore their studios and workshops across the Queanbeyan-Palerang region.

This year, you can visit artists in the Queanbeyan and Bungendore region on 19 and 20 October 2019 and artists in the Braidwood region open their studios the following weekend on 26 and 27 October.

Generally, studios and venues will be open both Saturday and Sunday 10am–4pm, however these may vary for each studio. Please refer to each studio listing to plan your trail.

This section (red) is dedicated to Queanbeyan and Bungendore artists' venues and studio listings, with new artists added to the trail this year.

Art by Anders

An iconic, extremely happy little gallery/studio/motorcycle workshop where dreams are found. Artist in-residence/technician, Anders Mykkeltvedt, works across different media constantly striving in the elusive search of the aesthetic and commentary of contemporary issues.

Bric-a-Bracer in-residence, Helen Whigham, is constantly sourcing treasures from the obscure to the collectable. Vintage, vogue and beyond.

Archbold Design

Alison Archbold

VizArche Farm would like to welcome visitors through their studio to see Alison Archbold's latest creations, which includes over 180 of her original designs, available as Greeting Cards, Gift Cards and her new patented Bottle Cards.

Also available are "one off" luxury Australian made cushions, only available from the studio, prints, rustic colourful birdhouses, and assorted outdoor artworks.

Alison has worked in multiple mediums over the past 30 years, so you can also see some of her Tromp'e Loeil murals, mosaics, ceramics and sculptures around the property too.

Come and enjoy the sheep, alpacas, chickens, plants and gardens, which are her constant source of inspiration.

Cheryl Hodges Botanical Art

Cheryl is a natural history artist, painting plants and insects in watercolour, on paper and vellum. She particularly enjoys painting Australian natives and more recently has been focusing particularly on threatened and endangered species. Cheryl teaches both botanical and insect illustration. She hopes that through her painting and teaching, she will encourage people to look at the natural world with curiosity and fascination, and therefore be more inclined to look after it.

Open: Saturday 10am–4pm, Sunday 10am–4pm

a: 259 Bicentennial Drive, Jerrabomberra

Nullarbor Nights Knitwear Studio

Alice Leda Pettiroso

Alice has been producing machine-knitted garments since 1991. Visitors to the Nullarbor Nights Knitwear studio will be able to view textile pieces and wearable art that has featured in past exhibitions, as well as knitted garments for purchase made from Merino wool, pure cotton, linen, and other fibres. A combination of these fibres produce unique fabrics. The workshop will be open showing the various stages of production of garments from yarn to finished product.

Garments may be made to order.

Curtis Glass Art

Matthew Curtis and Harriet Schwarzrock

Our studio is a shifting puzzle, at times a raucous family affair with contributions from two lovely boys and a menagerie. At other moments, it is a bustling glass blowing studio, hidden in our backyard in Queanbeyan. The objects produced in the studio, are often sculptural artworks, with incredible attention to detail, made predominantly from blown glass. There will be prototypes and production available for sale.

Open: Saturday 10am–2pm, Sunday 10am–2pm

a: 114 Uriarra Road, Queanbeyan

m: 0404 107 000

The Queanbeyan Hive

The Queanbeyan Hive is a gallery space with a difference. Set in the heart of Queanbeyan this lovingly restored, award winning Heritage cottage is itself an art piece. This space is shaping up to be a real cultural hub and for the Arts Trail they are preparing something special. The Richard Larter paintings will be back on showcase with another stunning exhibition.

Open: Saturday 10am–4pm, Sunday 10am–4pm

a: 74 Crawford Street Queanbeyan
m: 0403 994 446

Julie Ryder

As a mixed media artist, Julie enjoys working with a different variety of mediums to create her unique style of vibrant, colourful, happy and uplifting art works. Julie's previous work as a floral designer has been a huge inspiration for her work. Her passion for colour and texture is evident throughout her canvas artwork and art on paper.

Her watercolour, pencil and ink artworks are a mix of bright and colourful paintings of different types of subjects.

She also sells her artwork on cards, as prints, jewellery and other wall hangings.

Julie also holds a range of mixed media workshops for those who want to try something different or learn how to paint one of her creations.

Open: Saturday only 10am–4pm

a: 158 Halloran Drive Jerrabomberra

m: 0415 230 555

Teapot Studio

Helen Peart

Teapot Studio is a small stand-alone building where Helen enjoys painting botanical art and exploring the native bushland and local birds near the Queanbeyan River. Botanical art is very time consuming with great attention to detail – some mediums used are watercolour, coloured pencils, graphite and pastels.

This year Helen is also working on some 'contemporary' large canvases (inspired by our daughters) – works in progress can be seen at Teapot Studio on open days.

Helen is a member of the Botanical Art Society of Australia, the Art Society of Canberra and enjoys painting with the Botanical Art Group at the Australian National Botanical Gardens.

Open: Saturday 10am–4pm, Sunday 10am–4pm

a: 3 Beston Place, Greenleigh

m: 0407 103 471

e: bhpeart@bigpond.net.au

The Outsider Gallery

Gunther Deix

Gunther is one of the most prominent Outsider artists in Australia. The Outsider category implies that Gunther is self-taught and follows no school or style. Gunther's work is held in the collection of the National Gallery of Australia, as well as notable corporate and private collections of contemporary art. Gunther's house and studio is a must visit, with every square inch being painted, sculpted or covered in mosaic. Gunther shared the major award at the 2018 QPRC Regional Art Awards.

Open: Saturday 10am–4pm, Sunday 10am–4pm

a: 86 Foxlow Street Captains Flat p: 6236 6160
e: hrisgunt@bigpond.com

Saskia's Studio / Gallery

Saskia Bleys

A classically trained sculptor and painter, Saskia's unique watercolour style sometimes has a dreamlike quality, while her pen and wash images are often humorous. Many of her oil paintings lean towards the semi-abstract. For the Arts Trail Saskia will be focussing on her watercolours, charcoals, pen and washes, and oil paintings. Saskia provides an atmosphere in her home and studio where she invites you to sit, relax and enjoy some of the images she has created. She will be on site to welcome visitors to her studio and will be on hand to speak about her work.

Open: Saturday 10am–4pm, Sunday 10am–4pm

a: 206 Macs Reef Road Bywong
m: 0413 352 092
e: sbleys@gmail.com

X Gallery

Now in its 16th year, X Gallery exhibits the work of artists in various media including metal, glass, painting, sculpture, ceramics and photomedia through changing exhibitions and permanent display. Resident silversmith Xanthe Gay can also be found at work at her workbench inside the gallery where she creates her unique contemporary wearable works, small sculpture and commission work. See her new botanically inspired work from her 'Botanica Eclectica' range.

Open: Saturday 11am–5pm, Sunday 11am–5pm

a: 32 Gibraltar Street Bungendore

Suki & Hugh Gallery

Opened in 2015 by Directors Susan Foxlee & Samuel Cooper, Suki & Hugh Gallery has an exhibition program of exciting emerging and established artists.

Specialising in visual arts with a focus on glass, ceramics, painting and works on paper, the gallery has a growing reputation for hosting inspiring and compelling exhibitions.

Several local and interstate artists are showcased in the gallery shop, located within the same building as the exhibition space. A variety of small paintings and framed works on paper along with ceramic and glass art pieces and gifts can be purchased.

ArtRoom Studio

NEW

The ArtRoom Studio exhibits paintings and photographs by French artist Christine Rufflet, as well as jewellery creations. Christine, a mother and a teacher as well as an artist, works from her home studio, which is also a gallery and a winter garden. Christine's photographs have been exhibited in Canberra (Manuka Arts Centre, French Embassy) and in France. Her paintings are vibrant acrylic works on canvas and are inspired by nature. During the Arts Trail, there will be demonstrations of works in progress. Visitors will also be able to relax in the garden and enjoy light refreshments.

Open: Saturday 10am–4.30pm, Sunday 10am–4.30pm
