

Welcome to our September Project Update

Keeping you up to date with the Queanbeyan Civic and Cultural Precinct as it continuously changes. The team is looking to complete the final slab pour for Level 6 next week which will allow the remainder of levels to be stripped of formwork. Additionally, this would also allow for services and fit-out trades to continue and push through to the upper levels of the building. See below for an update of forthcoming works on the project or follow the above QR code to read more about the exciting project.

What's happening in construction?

Structure to Level 6 is nearing completion, while steel structure in certain areas to commence in the coming week. Glazing to the tower will commence which will soon "water-tight" each level.

Demolition of the Bicentennial Hall staircase has commenced which allows for Ground Floor structure works to the Q Link to commence.

Externally, HV upgrades throughout the Lowe Street carpark are completed with an imminent delivery of the sub-station.
