

Welcome to our December Project Update

Keeping you up to date with the Queanbeyan Civic and Cultural Precinct. The QCCP project is changing as each week passes. Over the last 2 weeks, members of the public would have noticed a transformation on the QCCP project with the Level 6 louvres having been installed. The top of these louvres is now the finished building height of the QCCP project. This milestone allows the team to install the roof and ensure the building is fully water tight as we push on with fit out works on all levels.
