Permission to Photograph Children

From time to time I take photographs of the children, either individually or in a group situation. Some of the photos I use in my Quality Improvement Plan, others I may use in the children's portfolios to display on the notice board for parents to see how their child is spending their day.

For me to photograph your child; I need to have your permission.

I give my permission for pictures to be taken of my child/children and to be used in the ways describe above.
